EXERCISE INSTRUCTIONS:

- Set aside 30-45 minutes and find somewhere soothing where you can sink into yourself - and this exercise.
- Answer the questions in this exercise to 1) Review and identify your 2016 highlights and 2) Prepare and set the scene for your 2017 goal-setting!

Tip: Do your best to identify the full 5 items for each question - and answer them from the heart. This isn't about what looks good on paper but what you are proud of - however small or unimportant it might seem to others.

NOW CELEBRATE:

- To wrap up this exercise, what reward or treat would remind you that you worked hard, learned and grew as a person? What could you do that would create and anchor a feeling of gratitude and pride in yourself and all you achieved?

Examples could include taking the day off to do something creative or to buy that painting, scarf, tie or jewelry you admire. It could also be something small or symbolic - a lion, an eagle, a chunk of amethyst, a special key-ring. It helps if it is something beautiful you will see often. This isn't about materialism, but rewarding and celebrating you. Choose something that creates an anchor to remind you of this year, something special to recognize all your efforts.

- Finally, all you have to do is commit to celebrating you: you're worth it!
